

The AgOne JOURNEY

THE ONE TRANSFORMATION

Discover Your True Self

Understand where you are as a leader in the agriculture industry, appreciate your accomplishments thus far, and listen to others' input on where you're going from here.

- Consider your current state and where you want to go
- Align your interests and goals with community needs
- Clarify your vision
- Identify your core values and guiding principles
- Explore strengths and areas for improvement
- Evaluate your opportunities
- Determine what you want your legacy to be
- Discover the power of influence

Level Up as a Leader

You've participated in leadership programs for years. You have board leadership and experiences under your belt. This is your opportunity to gain advanced leadership skills and qualities for upcoming roles.

- Brainstorm future roles and opportunities
- Develop your own personal Board of Directors
- Enhance leadership skills and qualities
- Learn to lead in any position
- Develop strategies to efficiently work on a team
- Learn to effectively communicate
- Sharpen your public speaking skills

Act for the Future

You have the skills and knowledge needed to accomplish your goals. Take time to grow your network and influence, and take strategic steps in working towards your short-term and long-term goals for yourself and the agricultural industry.

- Articulate your vision
- Network within a wider sphere of influence
- Make efforts to build the next generation
- Learn strategies to manage change
- Evaluate the future of the industry
- Navigate tough conversations
- Develop strategies for creating inclusive spaces

The AgOne EXPERIENCE

Session 1: Orientation and Intake Meeting

Session 2: Kick-off and Leadership Development Plan Development

Session 3: Self Leadership

Session 4: Team Leadership

Session 5: Stewardship and Organizational Oversight

Assessments

Five skill and behavioral assessments including BUILD, Emotional Intelligence 2.0, DISCFlex, Change Style, and the Kirton Adaption-Innovation Inventory.

Leadership Development Plan

Personal profile to define your style as a leader, your goals, and your vision for your future.

Individual Coaching

Five one-on-one coaching sessions to create a roadmap of learning and leadership propulsion.

Learning Workshops

5 in-person training days and various virtual workshops facilitated by the OSU Leadership Center and content experts for knowledge and skill building.

Networking

Growing current relationships and expanding your network to surface new leadership opportunities.

For more information about the AgOne program, visit agone.osu.edu.